

TASMANIAN FIELD NATURALISTS' CLUB

EASTER CAMP 1973

BRUNI ISLAND.....DORLOFF'S CARAVAN PARK.....ADVENTURE BAY
Friday, April 20th to Tuesday 24th.

Information:-

Cost...30 cents per head per night for each member of the group.

We might decide to use the marquee and share the cost of electric light.

(For a caravan site, including power, the charge is $1-20 a night but we shouldn't need this. Dorloffs say they have in mind an area which would be quite good for a group camp. In it we could arrange ourselves as we thought fit.)

Dorloff's is behind the second beach where Field Nats have camped before, - quite near the beach - for families, or for those who like a before-breakfast dip in the briny. There is a kiosk near the entrance to the Park.

We will be responsible, as usual, for our own transport, tents, camping gear, food etc.

There is available one van, which sleeps four, and which could be hired for $5-00 a night, for those who would rather sleep under a roof. Two places are already booked, Miss Mosey and Miss Greenstreet, so there will be two more places for booking - better ring at 237308 as soon as possible.

There is a bus leaving Harrington St, for Adventure Bay. Anyone planning to use this should check in good time about the Easter Time-Table, and booking seats.

Sorry this is such a late notice, but now let's make up our minds to enjoy a camp on Bruni Island.
